Our Analysis

Website Audit Summary for Happy Cleaning LA Your website scores a solid 80/100, but there's a critical issue holding you back: it's not using HTTPS encryption. This security gap makes potential customers hesitant to book services or enter payment information, directly costing you jobs despite your excellent 5-star rating. PixelForgeBD can quickly implement SSL certification and address remaining vulnerabilities, boosting customer trust and converting more of those interested visitors into confirmed cleaning appointments.
